

What to have in place before anything goes to the Commission

THE FOUR THINGS THE ACT REQUIRES

Requirement	In place
A senior employee appointed to manage implementation, named in the report	☐
A representative consultative committee, elected by the employees it represents, covering all occupational categories	☐
A statistical analysis of the workforce across occupational levels	☐
A three year affirmative action plan, prepared in consultation with the committee	☐

THE DATA TO COLLECT

Item	Done
One authoritative workforce number, used in every table	☐
Every employee graded to their real occupational level	☐
Designated group status recorded: racially disadvantaged, women, persons with disabilities	☐
Non-Namibian employees listed, with their named Namibian understudies	☐
Recruitment, promotion, termination and training numbers for the reporting period	☐
Salary scales by occupational level	☐

THE COMMITTEE RECORDS TO KEEP

Item	Done
Election records for committee members	☐
Signed minutes of every committee meeting	☐
Attendance registers	☐
A stated meeting frequency, quarterly being the usual answer	☐

THE RECONCILIATION CHECKS BEFORE SUBMISSION

Check	Done
The same workforce total runs through every table	☐
Opening headcount plus recruitment less terminations equals closing headcount	☐
Numerical goals reconcile: current workforce plus additions equals the envisaged profile	☐
Every yes in Table 8 has a matching measure in Annexure D	☐
The reporting period is the twelve months immediately preceding the report	☐
Your due date is diarised: twelve months from your last submission, extensions applied for two months ahead	☐

